St. Paul USBC Association Board Member Description:

In performing their Board and Board Committee functions, our directors will:

- Act diligently, openly, honestly and in good faith.
- Provide leadership in advancing the Association's support for the Association's membership and sport of bowling.
- Discharge their duties, as members of the Board and of any Board Committees on which they serve, in accordance with their good faith judgment and in the best interests of the members and the sport.
- Become and remain familiar with the Association and the services the Association provides to the membership.
- Commit the time necessary to prepare for, attend and actively participate in regular and special meetings of the Board and of the Board Committees on which they serve.
- Inform the Chairman of the Board of changes in their employment, other board positions, events, circumstances or conditions that may interfere with their ability to perform their Board or Board Committee duties.

Maintain the confidentiality of all material non-public information about Board activities, its business and affairs and make no use of it other than for furtherance of the Board's interests.

Thank you for your application.
